

Soul Star Clearing

By Tina Marie Daly

What is it that you truly desire in your life? And what is it that is standing in the way of achieving these desires? Integrated Energy Therapy (IET) and the Archangel Ariel can help!

It wasn't until I became an Integrated Energy Therapy® Master Instructor that I noticed how incredibly healing and transformative the Archangel Ariel's energy can be. IET Founder Steven Thayer channeled her healing modality and as a result founded the Center of Being in Woodstock, NY, in 1994. IET has now spread to more than 25 countries around the world.

In IET, Ariel is the Archangel who connects us with our eighth chakra, or soul star, the aspect of ourselves that contains the information of all of our lifetimes. When we clear this pathway of obstacles and connect with our soul star, we then uncover our soul's purpose and mission for our current lifetime. And when we are connected from this "centered" place, we can then begin to attract the perfect opportunities for our growth and development as our pathway or journey is revealed.

When we are fully connected to the eighth chakra, Ariel's cosmic angelic energy flows through us unblocked and unrestricted, manifesting what it is that we truly want. We are all purely connected to our soul purpose at birth but somewhere along the way, we "forget" who we are and thus erect and enforce barriers to protect us from the fearful thoughts and beliefs of life.

These barriers then create a separation from this chakra and keep us in the dark from our true purpose. Have you ever felt that you're just an arm's length away from where you want to be? Do you wonder why you are stuck or can't figure out where to go or what to do next? As Ariel begins to work on you, feel her at the top of your head, her magical and loving energy nurturing you and cleansing the pathway for the energy of the eighth chakra to flow into the seventh (the crown center at the top of your head) and then continue to move until all of the healing energy converges at the heart center. Remain here at your heart center, feeling this divine connection, and hold the vibration of unconditional love. You will feel lighter, at peace and more alert as Ariel unveils the clues to what your life purpose is — or what your next step is to achieving it.

So whether you want to manifest a divine job, find your soul mate, or enjoy an abundant flow of prosperity, working with Archangel Ariel and being closely connected with your "soul star" will get you there!
